1. Meetings

Mandatory for full Council meetings	▲
Mandatory for committee meetings	■
Mandatory for sub-committee meetings	●

- a. ▲ Meetings shall usually be held in the Kempsey Community Centre. When this is not available meetings shall not take place in premises, which at the time of the meeting, are used for the supply of alcohol unless no other premises are available free of charge or at a reasonable cost.
- b. ▲ ■ When calculating the 3 clear days for notice of a meeting to Councillors and the public, the day on which notice was issued, the day of the meeting, a Sunday, a day of the Christmas break, a day of the Easter break or of a bank holiday or a day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning shall not count.
- c. ▲ ■ Meetings shall be open to the public unless their presence is prejudicial to the public interest by reason of the confidential nature of the business to be transacted or for other special reasons. The public's exclusion from part or all of a meeting shall be by a resolution giving reasons for the public's exclusion.
- d. At the Chairman's discretion, subject to standing order 1(c) above, members of the public are permitted to make representations, answer questions and give evidence in respect of any item of business included in the agenda.
- e. During a period of adjournment, a public question time of up to thirty minutes shall be held where members of the public may put questions to the Council or bring matters to their attention.
- f. Participation in the public question time discussion shall be restricted to Parishioners except where specifically agreed otherwise by the Council.
- g. The length of time any person can speak for during the public question time shall be restricted to 5 minutes or longer at the discretion of the Chairman. Points raised by a parishioner should be concise and to: raise new issues, request an update on a previously raised matter or offer relevant new information on an existing issue.
- h. During the public question time (public participation session), questions may be asked by a member of the public but shall not require an immediate response or debate.
- i. In accordance with standing order 1(h) above, the Chairman may direct that a response to a question posed by a member of the public be referred to a Councillor for an oral response or add the item to the agenda for the following meeting or referred to an employee for a written or oral response.
- j. A record of a public participation session at a meeting shall be attached to the minutes of that meeting.
- k. A person shall raise their hand when requesting to speak during the public question time and members of the public shall stand when speaking (except when a person has a disability or is likely to suffer discomfort). The Chairman may at any time permit an individual to be seated when speaking. The Chairman will ask for the name and address of a member of the public addressing the Council.
- l. Any person speaking at a meeting shall address their comments to the Chairman.
- m. Only one person is permitted to speak at a time. If more than one person wishes to speak, the Chairman shall direct the order of speaking.
- n. Correspondence received by the Council shall be presented by the Clerk for discussion. This should be early on the agenda.
- o. ▲ ■ Photographing, recording, broadcasting or transmitting the proceedings of a meeting by any means is not permitted without the Council's prior written consent.

- p. ▲ ■ In accordance with standing order 1(c) above, the press shall be provided reasonable facilities for the taking of their report of all or part of a meeting at which they are entitled to be present.
- q. ▲ Subject to standing orders that indicate otherwise, anything authorised or required to be done by, to or before the Chairman may in his absence be done by, to or before the Vice-Chairman (if any).
- r. ▲ The Chairman, if present, shall preside at Council meetings. If the Chairman is absent from a meeting, the Vice-Chairman, if present, shall preside. If both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman are absent from a meeting, a Councillor as chosen by the Councillors present at the meeting shall preside at the meeting.
- s. ▲ ■ ● Subject to model standing order 1(aa) below, all questions at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of the Councillors present and voting thereon.
- t. ▲ ■ ● The Chairman may give an original vote on any matter put to the vote, and in the case of an equality of votes may exercise his casting vote whether or not he gave an original vote. (See also standing orders 2(h) and (i) below.)
- u. ▲ Unless standing orders provide otherwise, voting on any question shall be by a show of hands. At the request of a Councillor, the voting on any question shall be recorded so as to show whether each Councillor present and voting gave his vote for or against that question. Such a request shall be made before moving on to the next item of business on the agenda.
- v. ▲ ■ ● The minutes of a meeting shall record the names of Councillors present and absent. They shall also record the following:
 - i. declarations of interest (see 1(y), below);
 - ii. adoption of minutes from the previous meeting of that particular group, committee or Council;
 - iii. brief details of all resolutions, decisions, actions arising and any relevant timescales;
- w. If prior to a meeting, a Councillor has submitted reasons for his absence from the meeting which is then approved by a resolution, such resolution shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which the approval was given (see 1(v), above).
- x. ▲ ■ ● The code of conduct adopted by the Council shall apply to Councillors in respect of the entire meeting.
- y. ▲ ■ ● An interest arising from the code of conduct adopted by the Council, the existence and nature of which is required to be disclosed by a Councillor at a meeting, shall be recorded in the minutes. (See also standing order 7 below.)
- z. ▲ No business may be transacted at a meeting unless at least one third of the whole number of members of the Council (13 Councillors) are present and in no case shall the quorum of a meeting be less than three.
- aa. ▲ ■ ● If a meeting is or becomes inquorate no business shall be transacted and the meeting shall be adjourned. Any outstanding business of a meeting so adjourned shall be transacted at a following meeting.

5. Motions requiring written notice

- a. No motion may be moved at a meeting unless it is included in the agenda and the mover has given written notice of its wording to the Council's Proper Officer at least five clear days before the next meeting.
- b. The Proper Officer may, before including a motion in the agenda received in accordance with standing order 5(a) above, correct obvious grammatical or typographical errors in the wording of the motion.
- c. If the Proper Officer considers the wording of a motion received in accordance with the standing order 5(a) above is not clear in meaning, the motion shall be rejected until the mover of the motion resubmits it in writing to the Proper Officer in clear and certain language at least five clear days before the meeting.

- d. If the wording of a proposed motion is considered unlawful or improper, the Proper Officer shall consult with the mover to agree suitable amendment or its rejection.
- e. If no agreement is reached under standing order 5(d) above the Proper Officer shall consult with the Chairman of the forthcoming meeting or, as the case may be, the Councillors who have convened the meeting, to consider whether the motion shall be included or rejected in the agenda.
- f. Having consulted as per standing order 5(d) and if necessary 5(e) the decision of the proper officer as to whether or not to include the motion in the agenda shall be final.
- g. Every motion and resolution shall relate to the Council's statutory functions, powers and lawful obligations or shall relate to an issue which specifically affects the Council's area or its residents.

6. Rules of debate

- a. Motions included in an agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear on the agenda unless the order is changed at the Chairman's direction for reasons of expedience.
- b. A motion shall not be considered unless it has been proposed and seconded.
- c. A motion included in an agenda not moved by the Councillor who tabled it, may be treated as withdrawn.
- d. A Councillor may move amendments to his own motion. If a motion has been seconded an amendment to it shall be with the consent of the seconder.
- e. A proposed or carried amendment to a motion shall not have the effect of rescinding the original or substantive motion under consideration.
- f. Only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the Chairman. No further amendment to a motion shall be moved until the previous amendment has been disposed of.
- g. Subject to Standing Order 6(f) above, one or more amendments may be discussed together if the Chairman considers this expedient but shall be voted upon separately.
- h. If an amendment is not carried, other amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the Chairman.
- i. The mover of a motion or the mover of an amendment shall have a right of reply.
- j. Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply in respect of the substantive motion at the very end of debate and immediately before it is put to the vote.
- k. During the debate of a motion, a Councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the Councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A Councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order that he considers has been breached or specify the irregularity in the meeting he is concerned by.
- l. A point of order shall be decided by the Chairman and his decision shall be final.
- m. When a Councillor's motion is under debate no other motion shall be moved except:
 - i. to amend the motion;
 - ii. to proceed to the next business;
 - iii. to adjourn the debate;
 - iv. to put the motion to a vote;

- a. If a copy of the draft minutes of a preceding meeting has been circulated to Councillors no later than the day of service of the summons to attend the scheduled meeting they shall be taken as read.
- b. No discussion of the draft minutes of a preceding meeting shall take place except in relation to their accuracy. A motion to correct an inaccuracy in the minutes shall be moved without prior written notice in accordance with standing order 4(d) above.
- c. Minutes, including any amendment to correct their accuracy, shall be confirmed by resolution and shall be signed by the Chairman of the meeting and stand as an accurate record of the meeting to which the minutes relate.
- d. Upon a resolution that confirms the accuracy of the minutes of a meeting, any previous draft minutes or recordings of the meeting shall be destroyed.
- e. Draft minutes of all meetings shall be circulated to the relevant Councillors within seven working days of the meeting. These draft minutes shall be for the Councillors information only and not for disclosure to others.

10. Disorderly conduct

- a. No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly.
- b. If, in the opinion of the Chairman, there has been a breach of standing order 10(a) above, the Chairman shall express that opinion and thereafter any Councillor (including the Chairman) may move that the person be silenced or excluded from the meeting, and the motion, if seconded, shall be put forthwith and without discussion.
- c. If a resolution made in accordance with standing order 10(b) above, is disobeyed, the Chairman may take such further steps as may reasonably be necessary to enforce it and/or he may adjourn the meeting.

11. Rescission of previous resolutions

- a. A resolution (whether affirmative or negative) of the Council shall not be reversed within 6 months except either by a special motion, the written notice whereof bears the names of at least 5 councillors of the Council, or by a motion moved in pursuance of the report or recommendation of a committee.
- b. When a special motion or any other motion moved pursuant to standing order 11(a) above has been disposed of, no similar motion may be moved within a further 6 months.

12. Voting on appointments

- a. Where more than 2 persons have been nominated for a position to be filled by the Council and none of those persons has received an absolute majority of votes in their favour, the name of the person having the least number of votes shall be struck off the list and a fresh vote taken. This process shall continue until a majority of votes is given in favour of one person. Any tie may be settled by the Chairman's casting vote.
- b. Voting for Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Council shall be by paper ballot.
- c. Voting on cooption shall be by paper ballot.

13. Expenditure

- a. Any expenditure incurred by the Council shall be in accordance with the Council's financial regulations.
- b. The Council's financial regulations shall be reviewed at least once a year.
- c. The Council's financial regulations may make provision for the authorisation of the payment of money in exercise of any of the Council's functions to be delegated to a committee, sub-committee or to an employee.

14. Execution and sealing of legal deeds

- a. A legal deed shall not be executed on behalf of the Council unless the same has been authorised by a resolution.
- b. In accordance with a resolution made under standing order 14(a) above, the Council's common seal shall alone be used for sealing a deed required by law. It shall be applied by the Proper Officer in the presence of two members of the Council who shall sign the deed as witnesses.

15. Committees
