Following an upsurge in youth Anti-Social Behaviour in Kempsey last month some success can be reported. Two local youths were visited at home, with a parent/legal guardian present, and personally served with Level 2 ASB letters. After the level 2 letters were served a further incident occurred and level 3 letters have been served on the two youths.

ASB advice letters (the first stage in the tiered response) have been posted to the parents of 3 other local youths. A young adult originally from Kempsey and associated with the second group has also been issued with an ASB advice letter. The details of all recipients of ASB interventions are recorded on our Police Collector system.
